are allowed to participate in the competition. The number of participants representing the country is unlimited.

Participants are required to:

- follow the Rules and Regulations of the competition;
- follow the dress code;
- attend the opening and closing ceremonies of the competition;
- have medical insurance for the period of the competition.

4. Technical details:

Tournament Director: International referee Alisher Artikov.

4.1. Disciplines and the system of the Tournament:

1. Rapid-100 (international draughts) – 15 min. +5 sec. for each participant until the end of the game;
2. Blitz-100 (international draughts) – 5 min. +3 sec. to each participant until the end of the game;
3. Draughts composition (international draughts) – the tournament is held in two rounds with a total score among all participants, regardless of age and gender. The final results are summed up separately among men, women, boys and girls up to 17 and 14 years old.

In the first round, 16 compositions are proposed for solving in international draughts with time control - 2 (two) hours.

In the second round (blitz), 16 compositions are proposed for solving in international draughts, where the results are summed up taking into account the time spent. The duration of the tour is 1 (one) hour.

4.2. Qualification and finals:

In the Rapid and Blitz disciplines qualifying stages are held according to the Swiss system in 9 rounds.

In the qualifying stages, places are determined by the sum of points, scored in all rounds. In case of equality of points for two or more participants are allocated places according to the following criteria:

- by the Solkoff coefficient;
- by the truncated Solkoff coefficient, etc.

If they are equal, an additional match is played. 8 men (two fours) advance to the final. Among women, boys and girls under 17 and under 14 years of age – 4 people each, who will determine the winners and prize-winners in round robin system. The rest of the participants continue the game according to the Swiss system.

At the end of the application process, according to the decision of the Organizing Committee of the Tournament, adjustments may be made to clause 4.2.

4.3. Determining the winners:

In Rapid and Blitz disciplines, the places of participants are determined by the highest number of points scored. In case of equality of points between two or more participants, an additional criterion is the place taken in the qualifying stage.

In the draughts compositions discipline the final places of the participants are determined by the smallest number of places occupied in two rounds.

In case of equality of final places for two or more participants, additional criteria are applied:

- The highest number of points scored at the end of two rounds;
- The best place taken in the 1st (first) round;
- The largest amount of completed tasks based on the results of two rounds.

In each discipline, winners and prize-winners are determined among men, women, boys and girls under 17 years old (born in 2008 and younger), boys and girls under 14 years old (born in 2011 and younger).

5. Awards and prizes

The winners in all categories are awarded with medals and diplomas. The participants who took 1st – 6th places among men, 1st - 3rd places among women, as well as boys and girls winners in the categories under 18 and under 14 years old, are awarded with money prizes.

This Provision may be adjusted depending on the number of declared participants according to the decision of the Organizing Committee of the Tournament.

6. Finance

All expenses for travel, meals, accommodation and payment of tournament fees are at the expense of the sending organizations or the participants themselves. The costs of organizing and holding events – by the Organizing Committee.

7. Tournament fee

The tournament fee is: 50/30/10 USD (Rapid – 50 USD; Blitz – 30 USD; draughts compositions – 10 USD). Participants of the age category under 17 and under 14 years old pay 50% of the amount of the contribution.
